

PAMELA C. NOGALES C.

EDUCATION

---

- 2020 New York University, New York
Doctor of Philosophy Degree Conferral: 17 January 2020
Doctoral Program in History, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences
Dissertation: “Reform in the Age of Capital: The Transatlantic Roots of the American Reform Tradition, 1828–1876”
Passed Dissertation Defense, with Distinction: 9 December 2019
Committee: Thomas Bender (advisor), Barbara Fields, Eric Foner, Steven Hahn, and Andrew Sartori
Major Field: American History
Minor Field: Museum Studies
- 2019 New York University, New York
Graduate School of Arts and Sciences
Master of Philosophy Degree Conferral: January 2019
- 2016 New-York Historical Society, New York
Institute for Constitutional Studies: “Thomas Jefferson's Democratic Constitutionalism” with Profs. Annette Gordon-Reed and Peter Onuf
- 2012 New York University, New York
John W. Draper M.A. Program in Humanities & Social Thought
Thesis: “Marx on the American Civil War: Labor Politics in the Age of Industrial Capitalism”
Master of Arts Degree Conferral: May 2012
- 2008 School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago
Dual-Degree Program. Visual & Critical Studies B.A.
B.F.A. Studio Concentration: Photography & Sculpture
BA & BFA Degree Conferral: June 2008

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

---

- 2022 Harper-Schmidt Fellowship in the Social Sciences, University of Chicago, 2022–2026
- 2020 Bernard Bellush Prize in Labor History, New York Labor History Association
- 2019 Formation of Normative Orders Fellowship, Goethe-Universität Frankfurt, Germany
- 2019 Global Research Initiative Fellowship, London, UK, NYU
- 2018 Howard Reese Prize for Best Paper in Diplomatic History
- 2018 Fulbright U.S. Student Program Fellowship, Germany
- 2017 Global Research Initiative Fellowship, Berlin, DE, NYU
- 2016 Jerrold Seigel Fellowship in Intellectual and Cultural History, Columbia University & NYU
- 2015 Global Research Initiative Fellowship, Washington DC, NYU
- 2014 Mellon Foundation Grant, NYU
- 2012 Opportunity Fellowship Program, NYU
- 2012 Three-year Summer Fellowship, NYU
- 2012 Dean’s Fellowship, NYU
- 2012 MacCracken Award, NYU

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

---

Modern American history, from the nineteenth century to the present
Transatlantic migration
Race in America
History of liberalism in the Transatlantic World
History of Social Democracy, from Lassalle to FDR
The politics of American industry, from the “American System” to WWII
Socio-political history of American labor

LANGUAGES

---

English & Spanish: native speaker

German: advanced reading knowledge & intermediate speaking skills (B2.2)

French: intermediate reading knowledge & speaking skills (B1)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

---

- Taught students in discussion, lecture, and small-group settings; and held weekly office hours
  - Managed student thesis projects, provided one-on-one advising and extensive edits to written work
- 2022 Collegiate Assistant Professor in Social Sciences Collegiate Division & Harper-Schmidt Fellow in the University of Chicago Society of Fellows, 2022–ongoing. University of Chicago, Chicago, IL
- 2021 Assistant Instructional Professor in the Social Sciences Collegiate Division Core sequence, “Power, Identity, Resistance,” September 2021–June 2022. University of Chicago, Chicago, IL
- 2018 Public Lecturer, “Cosmopolitan Immigrants in America” December 2017–January 2018. Jefferson Market Branch, New York Public Library, Manhattan, NY
- 2017 Adjunct Professor for “World History I”, Social Science and Cultural Studies, January – May. Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY
- Public Lecturer, “Demands for Land and Freedom in New York, 1829–48” February–March. Jefferson Market Branch, New York Public Library, Manhattan, NY. Featured in Fred Wiseman’s 2017 documentary, Ex Libris: The New York Public Library.
- 2016 Adjunct Professor for “World History I”, Social Science and Cultural Studies, August – December. Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY
- Adjunct Instructor for “Survey of American Civilization Since the Civil War” led by Prof. Mark Carnes. Spring 2016 semester, January–May. Barnard College, Columbia University, Manhattan, NY
- Public Lecturer, “Reconstruction: ‘America’s Unfinished Revolution,’ 150 Years Later” January – February 2016. Jefferson Market Branch, New York Public Library, Manhattan, NY
- 2015 Public Lecturer, “Reform in the Age of Capital: Political Thought in the United States, 1828–1877” October – November 2015. Jefferson Market Branch, New York Public Library, Manhattan, NY
- Adjunct Instructor for “History 101: Capitalism” led by Profs. Karl Appuhn & Andrew Sartori. Fall 2015 semester, August – December. New York University, Manhattan, NY
- 2014 Course Assistant for “African-American History to 1865” led by Prof. Michele Mitchell. Fall 2014 semester, August – December. New York University, Manhattan, NY

INVITED TALKS

---

“The ‘World Republic’: Radical Immigrants in Nineteenth-Century America,” guest lecture for Main Currents: American History 1865–present at the University of Texas at Austin, September 2022.

“The ‘World Republic’: Radical Immigrants in Nineteenth-Century America,” a talk for the American Studies program at Bard College, New York, February, 2022.

“The International Workingmen’s Association in the United States and the ‘Social Question’ in the Nineteenth Century” at the Carolina Triangle Labor Seminar, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, March, 2021.

“Urban Labor Reform and the Fight for the Shorter Working Day” at the Global Nineteenth Century Workshop, hosted by Prof. Steven Hahn, New York University, New York, December, 2019.

“The Problem of Democracy: An On-going Crisis,” closing panel at “The Past, Present and Future of Crises,” of the “Kritiken der Krise” Conference, Goethe Univeristät, Frankfurt am Main, Germany, June, 2018.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

---

Presenter and Chair, “The International Workingmen’s Association and the Social Question in 19th-Century America,” in the panel “From the First to the Second International: Socialists in America, from the Civil War to World War I,” organized for the Annual Conference of the American Historical Association, January 2023, Philadelphia.

“Reform in the Age of Capital,” Weissbourd Fall Symposium, Society of Fellows in the Liberal Arts, Franke Institute for the Humanities, University of Chicago, October 2022, Chicago.

“Civil Society Divided Against Itself: The Language of the Shorter-Hours Movement in Nineteenth-Century America,” presentation at the Political Theory Workshop, University of Chicago, January 2022, Chicago.

“The Erosion of ‘Citizenship Time’ and the Right to Disconnect” presentation for the Summer Academy “Sustainable Work,” organized by Centre Marc Bloch and the Research Network Working Futures, a joint project of the research center Work and Human Lifecycle in Global History (re:work) and the Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin, May 2021, Berlin, Germany.

“The International Workingmen’s Association in the United States and the American Reform Tradition,” on the panel “From the First International to the Crisis of the New Left” at the annual conference of the Society for United States Intellectual History (S-USIH), October 2020.

“The Divided Legacy of Revolution in 1848” at “Global History” Conference in Şehir University, Istanbul, Turkey, June, 2018 & Freie University, Berlin, Germany, June, 2018; as well as at the history research seminar hosted by Profs. Andreas Fahrmeir and Christoph Cornelißen, Goethe Universität, Frankfurt, April, 2018.

“The Memory of Revolution: 1848” presented at “Crossroads of Intellectual History” Center for International Research in the Humanities and Social Sciences, NYU, NYC. June, 2017.

“Early Industrialization and the Emergence of Working People’s Politics” presented at “Crossroads of Intellectual History” L’École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, Paris, France. November, 2016.

“Labor Reform and Abolitionism: The Problem of Freedom in Antebellum America” presented at “Resistance and Remembrance: Collective Identities and the Uses of History,” Midwest Labor and Working-Class History (MLWCH) Colloquium, University of Illinois at Chicago, Chicago, IL. March, 2014.

“Labor Reform and Abolitionism: The Problem of Freedom in Antebellum America,” Loyola University History Graduate Student Conference, Loyola University, Chicago, IL. November, 2013.

“Labor Politics during the U.S. Civil War,” Literary Group Summer Institute on Culture and Society, Institute for the Humanities, University of Illinois at Chicago, IL. June, 2011.

“What’s left of the Left? Zur Situation der Linke in den USA” Goethe-Universität, Frankfurt am Main, Frankfurt, Germany, August, 2011.

“The Left’s Legacy & Unresolved Problems” Rethinking Conference, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, MA. November, 2009.

“Aliens of Extraordinary Ability: An Interdisciplinary Symposium,” Center for the Study of Race, Politics & Culture, University of Chicago, IL. May, 2005.

PUBLICATIONS

---

2021 “Civil Society Divided Against Itself: The Language of the Shorter-Hours Movement in Nineteenth-Century America,” invited to revise and resubmit to J19: The Journal of Nineteenth-Century Americanists.

2018 “The Problem of Democracy: Political Traditions in the Revolutions of 1848,” guest contribution to the Journal of the History of Ideas online blog.

“The Divided Legacy of Democracy: The Transformation of the Liberal Political Tradition in the Nineteenth Century” part of the “Challenging Democratic Revolutions” series for the Age of Revolutions history blog.

VISITING APPOINTMENT

---

2017 Visiting Scholar, Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main, Germany, October 2017–November 2018.

RELATED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

2018 Curator for Public Talks at non-for-profit space, Kapital. Talks are free and open to the public and include local artists, writers and thinkers. Kapital is a cooperative organization, founded in 2015. Neukölln, Berlin, Germany, on-going.

2008–2011 Instructor of English as a Second Language, including CAE & TOEFL preparation
Embassy CES (EC New York), Manhattan, NY
Rennert Bilingual Language School, Manhattan, NY
GEOS Language Institute, Manhattan, NY

2006–2008 Museum Educator, Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago, IL

2007 Arts Youth Mentor, Street Level Youth Media, Chicago, IL

2004 Museum Education Intern, The Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago, IL

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

---

American Historical Association
Organization of American Historians
Society for United States Intellectual History
American Alliance of Museums